DECISION OF THE ENERGY CHARTER CONFERENCE

Subject: Application by the Republic of Indonesia for observer status

In document CC 369 of 27 April 2009, delegations were informed that the Government of the Republic of Indonesia had requested that the Republic of Indonesia be granted observer status to the Energy Charter process.

The Energy Charter Conference was invited to approve the following conclusion by written procedure:

“The Energy Charter Conference notes the request of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia that the Republic of Indonesia be admitted as an observer.

Acting pursuant to Section VIII of the Final Act of the Energy Charter Conference, the Conference approves the request of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia.*

The Conference invites the Government of the Netherlands and the Energy Charter Secretariat to make the appropriate arrangements for implementing this decision, including the signature by the Republic of Indonesia of the Concluding Document of The Hague Conference on the European Energy Charter .”

No notification against the above conclusion was received within the time limit stated in the above document (5 p.m. Brussels time on 20 May 2009). [Accordingly, in Message 811/09 delegations were informed that the above conclusion had been adopted.]
