

Annex

Declaration by the European Commission on behalf of the EU:

'It is declared that, due to the nature of the EU internal legal order, the text in Title II, Heading 4, of the International Energy Charter on dispute settlement mechanisms cannot be construed so as to mean that any such mechanisms would become applicable in relations between the European Union and its Member States, or between the said Member States, on the basis of that text.'